ARTFUL DODGER SURPRISES

DEFEATS HIGGINBOTHAM, BIG BEN AND OTHER SPEEDY SPRINTERS.

Galta and Roseburg II. Take the Races for Two-Year-Olds-Paul Spoils an Intended Coup -Rexane in Front Again.

New Orleans, La., February 7 .- There was little disappointment manifested by the crowd over the poor racing at the Fair Grounds this afternoon. confidently expected that the bad track would furnish surprises and the big speculators refrained from heavy operations. The poor class of starters held the attendance down to small numbers. track was a deceptive one, which appeared good on surface, but was deep and holding, and in spots soft to a degree that anchored those unlucky enough to get into the bad places.

A select coterie of smart easterners attempted a coup of no mean proportions by backing Hooray all the country in the fifth race, but their welllaid plans miscarried when Paul beat him to the finish by a small margin. Part of their losses were retrieved in the succeeding races when Rexane and Druid led their opponents home. Both were pronounced choices and heavily supported.

Artful Dodger, in the fourth race, showed a super lor performance by winning despite the poor ride that Mulcahy gave him. Meadowbreeze in this race was backed into favoritism from a long price, but his chances went glimmering shortly after the start, when his rider, V. Powers, appeared to deliberately hold him back and trailed the others to the stretch turn, when he began riding vigorously, and Meadow breeze responded with an astonishing display of speed that almost landed him in the money. Powers' ride on Banridge in the third race also came in for condemnation. He allowed himself to be caught napping at the post and then rode with poor judgment, the race going to the long overdue My Love, which beat the good thing, Czar, in a well-contested stretch drive.

Secretary Maginn had split the original youngster race and run it in two divisions, as the first and second races. The first was taken by Galta in a sharp drive from Autumn Maid, Notter's skill being the deciding factor. After many attempts Roseburg II. finally found conditions favorable for a display of his real worth and took the second race from T. C. McDowell's Serenade, which was making her first start. Serenade has been showing private trials of three furlongs in 35 seconds, but ran green and will reverse this running at near future date.

Jockey Brussel will, in the future, ride for J. J McCafferty, Frank Brown, his former employer, transferring his contract today.

Rappahannock was disposed of by A. Simons to W. B. Freeman for $300.

Jockey W. Oit was suspended by the starter for five days for disobedience at the post. Robert Tucker has instructed trainer H. C.

Riddle to prepare for shipment to Los Angeles the horses he has racing here.

Club, will arrive here Monday in the interest of the Milldale track, to solicit entries from horsemer to the stakes that will be run at Latonia.

"BILL" SMITH ON CHILTON AND BELMAR.

William Smith, who trained the horses owned and raced by his brother, George E. Smith, better known on the turf as "Pittsburg Phil," says Chilton was the best horse he ever trained. "I have not seen any of the Chilton youngsters yet, but several of them are racing at New Orleans and they already give some promise of inheriting some of the racing qualities of their sire.

"If it had not been for his bad legs I believe tha Chilton would have been one of the great horses of turf history. He had a marvelous turn of speed and it was only his bad underpinning that prevented his being really great. He could carry his speed as far as horses are asked to race, and the sport loss a wonderful horse when he broke down.'

"Relmar was a more than useful horse to me says Smith, in speaking of the sixteen-year-old gray horse by Belvidere—Adele, now owned by T. L. Watt and loaned by him for stud duty in Westchester county as a breeding bureau stallion

"He was one of those old-fashioned tough horse that really did not come to his maturity and real good form until he reached his fourth year. He certainly was a good horse, and I will never forge the time he heat Sir Walter. It took some horse to do that when Sir Walter was good.

"By the way, do you know that he won six handicaps in a row? That is racing for a horse that is in the hands of handicapper Vosburgh. You can't fool Mr. Vosburgh much, but the old gray horse was one that did. He had a fashion of winning his races by a nose or a head each time. It did not make any difference what the company was Belmar would not beat the bad ones any further than he did the good ones

'The old horse is up in Westchester county now I go up and see him once in a while. He is look ing well, but is snow white now. He is sixteen years old and good for many a year of stud duty."

TAME RACING AT SANTA ANITA PARK.

Poorer Class of Horses Engaged in Unwieldy Fields -L. C. Widrig Outruns Chief Desmond

Los Angeles, Cal., February 7.-The usual dull Friday card was offered today and the racing was onsequently uninteresting. Little scratching was indulged in and most of the fields were of unwieldy proportions.

Jockey E. Dugan indulged in some rough riding with Litholin, for which he was severely repri manded.

The most pretentious race was won by L. C. Wid rig, heavily backed by the talent and public alike The weight fit him snugly, but he had to be driver out to the limit at the end to withstand Chief ond's challenge.

The nineteen books did a good day's busines and had the better of the afternoon's sport.

Fine summer weather prevailed and the track was about as fast as it ever has been, but the poor class of horses entered today prevented any thought of new track records being established.

Jockey Miller did not wait until the last race fore riding a winner today. Kerry, under a good ride from the premier jockey, easily defeated the even-money favorite in the first race by three lengths easing up. Laura Clay showed the most early speed but tired at the end. Albion H. in a fast closing rush took third place in the last stride Traffic was most fancied in the youngster race but when it came to the running was no match fo Antioch, The latter, off to a flying start, led throughout and never left the result in doubt. Colored Lady was an easy third. The others were ever dangerous.

Chief Desmond proceeded to set a fast pace in third race with L. C. Widrig running lapped on him to the stretch, when the latter under a flerce drive succeeded in getting the verdict in the last stride

George Swain easily disposed of Laura E. in the stretch run and won going away.

Little Minister came fast in the last sixteentl

Ila, in the closing race, was the second winning favorite and the second winner for Walter Miller.

TURF FOLLOWERS GOOD BUSINESS MEN.

Instances of Those Thriving in Other Walks of Life Who Graduated from the Tracks.

New York, February 5 .- Because of the asser tions made by the enemies of the turf that its pursuit unfits young men for more serious business affairs, the writer is desirous of setting forth particulars of at least two young men who have ercome difficulties incurred in following racing.

Chicago's turf devotees will no doubt easily recall year that Clarence H. Mackay's Heno was defeated in the American Derby at Washington Park. That was in 1902, the race having been won by John A. Drake's Wyeth, with Lucies Appleby second and Aladdin third. The track was, of course, very heavy. Not one of these horses ever after displayed first-class form. Not one of these three The eastern contingent returned to New York with drooping feathers. In addition to Heno, these John B. Dillon, secretary of the Latonia Jockey club, will arrive here Monday in the interest of the Milldale track, to solicit entries from horseness. Add a reliable track to solicit entries from horseness. 2:40%, which spoke for itself, when it is recalled that on this same course Goodrich ran a mile and a half in 2:304, the present American record.

Mr. Mackay had high hopes of winning the Derby that year with Heno. He took Mrs. Mackay. Mrs. Butler Duncan, Craig Wadsworth and Fred Gebhard with him to Chicago in a special car Heno had been at Chicago for several days, but the going was so heavy that the work which Heno's trainer, "Charley" Hill, considered neces sary, had dulled his vigor, and some keen horse watchers, notably "Mike" Danaher, advised their friends not to bet on Heno. This caused his price to go back in the betting. The race showed that Danaher's judgment was right, for Heno was un placed. The official report says that Hermis pulled up lame, which is incorrect. His jockey, McCue refused to make any use of the colt. 'Arsenal, which had won the Metropolitan Haudicap that year, and Pentecost, which should have v Suburban a week before, which went to Gold Heels. both ran badly in the going, which they wholly unaccustomed to. Upon their return to New York, "G.," who h been Mr. Mackay's betting commissioner, and had lost $2,000 on Heno, which he had backed to win $30,000 in the ante-post betting, felt very sore However, on the day of the return of the dejected eastern parties. Mr. Mackay's mare Kamara was engaged in the Sheepshead Bay Handicap, at a mile was at 20 to 1 in some of the betting, and had "G." endeavored to get Mr. Redfern up. to bet on Kamara, but he would not, saying the mare had deceived him too often. last race today unless she shows better form than of late," said Mr. Mackay. "G." argued the fact that Kamara had done little work in ten days would help to freshen her up. His argument convinced Jesse Lewisohn, and he took 6 to 1 third, to win $35,000. "G." himself bet $2,000 on her third, and when she won he got a good part of the money he did not get when Heno lost the American

RHODORA DEEMED BETTER THAN LESBIA.

Noted English Turf Writer's Estimate of the Com parative Morits of the Two.

Last year in England the best two-year-old fillies were generally held to be superior to the best colts of that age. colts of that age. It was also decided by the ma rity of experts that Lesbia was the best of the illies and in consequence the best two-year-old of the year. To neither of these opinions does "Augur." of London Sporting Life, subscribe. He holds Rhodora was better than Lesbia and in an interesting comparison of the performances of the wo crack fillies, says:

"When the last flat race season ended there were not wanting folk who d-clared that among the two-year-olds the fillies were better than the coltsan opinion that I could by no means subscribe to ind now that the young ones referred to are three years old, I doubt very much the same opinion being expressed at the end of the coming season It may be rather a bold line to take, but, as I recently wrote. I shall not believe in Lesbia, the supposed best of last year's fillies, asserting superiority over the colts in the classic races of the now fast-approaching season. I call Lesbia the 'supposed best,' because by common consent she has been awarded the place of honor, though, for my part, I consider Rhodora's performances entitle to the preference. An impartial comparison of the deeds of the pair will, I think, convince any who witnessed most of their races that the 'rish-bred filly's work in her first season was better than that of Sir Daniel Cooper's filly. In saying this, I am not forgetting that Rhodora was unlaced in the Middle Park Plate, won by Lesbia, but surely, in the light of Rhodora's subsequent in the Dewhurst Plate, no one contend that Mr. Croker's filly showed us her true form in the Second October Week. Probably she was feeling the effects of her journey across St. George's Channel, for we saw her give a very different performance a fortnight later, after staying at the turf headquarters.

"Admirers of Lesbia will, of course, urge that she is unbeaten, but, after all, what did she really do? She was out five times, her first appearance being delayed till the York August Meeting, where thorough fitness has as much as anything to de with her victory in the Prince of Wales' Plate, and she beat nothing of any account, while it should be borne in mind that Beauty Sleep and Indian Runner were giving her fifteen and eighteen pounds respectively. Her next race, the Champagne Stakes at Doncaster, I refuse to accept as a true test of the merits of the youngsters that ran. ship had much to do with the victory of Lesbia, which had all the luck of that day, and while the others were see-sawing about, Maher, on the nippy little daughter of St. Frusquin was saving a lot of ground on the extreme inside of the elboy track. Her third essay was a walk-over for the Buckenham Stakes, and then she dead-heated for the Imperial Produce Plate at Kempton Park with , but what did they beat? And if the Kingsclere colt had known his business better, I doubt whether Lesbia would have got to his neck, although I will admit that she ran or most gamely at the finish to make a dead heat of it. Probably her last race was her best, when she confirmed the York form with the disappointing Morena in the Middle Park Plate, and quite exploded any theories that Miranda might as good as her illustrious sister. Pretty Polly. For unexplained reason, Rhodora did not her true form that day, as we can see by referring to the Dewhurst Plate, where she beat Your Ma jesty a long way, and Mr. J. B. Joel's colt had finished in front of her at the Second October Meeting. We shall see how Lesbia progresses, but it is not encouraging to her admirers to hear that she has not grown at all.

"The Dewhust Plate winner had a much harder ason that Lesbia, and did a lot of traveling backwards and forwards to her Irish training home came out at Leopardstown on the last day of May, when she won the Cadogan Plate in a canter from Temeraire and three others. Less than a month later the last-named gray son of Grey Leg turned the tables on Rhodora in the Waterford Testimonia Stakes, but it must be remembered that the filly was conceding the colt eleven pounds. The pair met a third time, in August, when for the London derry Prize, at Leopardstown, they dead-heated. Rhodora carrying 134 pounds to the 133 pounds of Temeraire. Probably the latter's form with Rho dora has had much to do with the purchase of Temeraire by a patron of S. H. Darling's stable I remember hearing such a good account of the gray in the summer that I selected him in this colum Great Lancashire Breeders' Stakes at the Liverpool July Meeting, but probabl his cross-channel journey had temporarily upset him for he could not have run up to his form when beaten by the Pace-egger filly and Yvette. Re verting, however, to Rhodora's performances, prior to her third meeting with Temeraire, she had been sent over to contest the National duce Stakes at Sandown Park, which many people think she was unlucky not to win, for, after being kicked at the post, she began slowly, and it wa the general opinion that her rider sent her out to win her race just a little too soon. she had a very hard race, when White Eagle se gallantly ran her out of the finish, for Mr. Hall was conceding her twelve pounds The knocking about and severe finish would have

ST. FRANCIS FAILS BADLY

RUNS UNPLACED IN THE FEATURE OAKLAND RACE, AN OUTSIDER WINNING.

Oakland Cal. February 7.-The running of the Kenwood Handicap, today's five and a half furlongs feature at Oakland, developed into one of the notable upsets of the meeting. Seven horses faced the starter, including two stars of the local sprinting division in St. Francis and Cloudlight. former, on the strength of his recent victory over Gemmell, was backed at odds-on as if the race was all over but the shouting. The Bright Phoebus mare was a strong second choice. These two raced out into a big early lead and were completely ex-hausted in the stretch, letting up a trio of un-backed outsiders in Tom Shaw, Elevation and Bu-colic, against any one of which 15 to 1 was obtainable at some stage in the betting.

Excenting this one race the betting public fared well, two favorites and one second and two third choices accounting for the card despite the unusually deceptive going. The racing today was marked by probably the slowest time in the history of the track.

The unprecedented long spell of wet weather is beginning to tell on the track, which is now full of noles, some a foot deep or more. Unless a change for the better materializes soon, the footing will be too unsafe to race over. There were two very bad-looking spills today. Gold Bar and St. Francis stepped into a hole after the finish of their races, and, with the exception of Hildebrand on Gold Bar, they all escaped serious injury. Hildebrand, who brother to the one-time champion jockey, was picked up in an unconscious condition and conveyed to the hospital. Latest reports say that he will recover.

A secondary feature on the card was the fourth running of the California Jockey Club Breeding Bureau races, which opened the proceedings. The starter left the heavily backed favorite, Confessor, at the post and Watchful, which had hobbled the track so sore and lame that it seemed as if he could hardly stride over a straw, scored an unexpectedly game victory from Tancred, Integrity and Joe Riley.

The beautifully bred five-year-old Wadsworth-Wary stallion now goes to the State Breeding Bureau for stud purposes.

Jockey McClain, who rode The Englishman in the sixth race, was fined $50 by the stewards pulling his mount up at the end and letting Eudora up for second place in the last stride.

Bright, clear weather prevailed. Approximately 5,000 spectators viewed excellent sport and thirtynine layers laid the odds.

ARGENTINE THOROUGHBREDS INCREASING.

Senor Patricio Roderigo Casey of Buenos Ayres, South America, who is now in this c way home from a visit in England, is one of the leading turfmen of Argentine and a member of the Jockey Club of Buenos Ayres. Senor Casey, in comparing his country with the United States a recent interview, speaking of the horse breeding industry in Argentine said:

"Now, as for horses, the Argentinians do not believe that England should have a monopoly of thoroughbred blood. . We found our mistake in 1898 when England wanted horses for cavalry and for army purposes. There the northern Yankees had the best of it, for we were short of good blood and had but few thoroughbreds. of Ormonde, Gay Hermit and the other thoroughbreds imported to the Argentine had not made sufficient impress on our stock to give us a standing, but it is different now and will be in the future.

'In the last three years we have imported over $1,000,000 worth of horses, or to put it 200,000 guineas worth in English money. from France, Val D'Or, Jardy, Liverot and many other first-class horses. From England we have taken Diamond Jubilee, Cyllene and scores of horses of lesser importance.

"We have as good racing as they have where in the world. We have a Jockey Club, formed on the same principal as the Jockey Club The members of the club are men of in France. wealth and every one of them is interested in racing as a sport and in the vital importance of the value of horse-breeding on scientific lines with the thoroughbred to give them speed and staying quali-

"The cost of raising horses in the Argentine is lower than in any other country. Our pampas are like your western prairies and I may be pardoned for saying the grass is better and far more luxuri Besides, we have no severe cold, with the re that horses run out the year round. Some day we'll be sending horses up here to capture your rich stakes. I think it would be easy to win a Derby or Grand Prix, only the ages of our horses date from the first of November, and the advantage of age would rest with the horses bred north of the equator. We may shift about a bit and make a try for the English prizes."

Last Go, nearly left, closed an immense gap. Supine, nearly left and shuffled back again on the first turn, closed a gap under a bad ride. Tom Shaw broke slowly and was outpaced in the early running, but made good with a sensational stretch sprint. Elevation, away badiy and trailing to the stretch, finished a fast going second in a remarkable effort for him. Bacolic, well up in the early running, stood a stretch drive gamely to save third place and was short. Reene W., outrun to the stretch, finished with a rush. St. Francis forced the pace for the first half, but quit badly at the end. Cloudlight was also exhausted after a half mile of strenuous pacemaking. Marwood showed early speed.

Winner—Br. g, by The Judge—Floriana (trained by C. Brant).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily: second driving; third the same. The Captain trailed for half the journey, then moved up leisurely on the turn and won off at the end pulling up. Wolfville ran out on all turns, losing twenty lengths under a poor ride and was easily best. Derdom was well up from the start and steadily improved his position near the end. Celeres set the pace by a wide gap for seven furlongs, then quit very badly. Gromobol, after early strenuous and close attendance on Celeres, quit. as if short. Meada quit after forward contention for six furlongs. Altair retired at the end of five furlongs. Lassen is best in sloppy going. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Eudora ran in forward and very game contention throughout and is at her best. The Englishman made the running for five furlongs, but readily gave way to the favorite and was pulling up at the end and his rider was caught napping for second place. Roseburg II. was shuffled back soon after the start, but remaining in the best going, was a forward concluder after rounding the turn, moved up fast and steadily and, wearing Serenade down in the last sixteenth, won drawing clear. Serenade showed the most early speed, finished resolutely and will improve. Exotic, prominent for the first quarter, tired slightly near the end. Helen Kidder ran well and did not run out today. Intervene, poorly ridden, was taken wide and closed a big gap in the last furlong. Servicence broke slowly and finished gamely. The others were always outpaced.

Went to post at 3:18. At post 6 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. Artful Dodger, running to his best form, was forced to go wide all the way, but finished fast and gamely and got up in the last few strides. Big Ben ran well, but was restrained hard and taken wide and can do much better. No Quarter came with a rush near the end. Bertha E. ran fairly well. Meadowbreeze was taken back sharply soon after the start; but closed a big gap, responded gamely to urging and, finishing with a rush, was going faster than the leaders. Ralbert showed speed, but quit. Baleshed ran a good half and tired in the last quarter. Conville was knocked back at the half-mile ground. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

VETERAN WESTERN TRAINER PASSES AWAY.

Pat Grogan, a kindly eccentric old soul and a good trainer, is dead. Long ago he trained for J. D. Patton and others of the colony of horse breeders and horse lovers settled at or near Mary-Ethel Gray was one of the best race he ever trained and she was good enough to go to the races anywhere. But Grogan trained many other horses of note in western training. He was sixty-two years of age.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The first foal of the season at Valley Farm Stud is a chestnut filly by Martimas-Noblec.

It is reported that H. W. Hoag has purchase the contract on jockey Heatherton for $1,500.

Louis V. Bell has announced that he will go to Japan and possibly take up his permanent resi-dence at Tokio, says a New York newspaper.

Ithis said that S. C. Hildreth will rely upon Mee lick to win the California Derby and will probably not send Uncle to the post. He is not burrying the preparation of the latter, while Meelick is said to be ready now.

The leaders in the Kentucky legislature in opposition to the passage of the several bills affecting the State Racing Commission and the turf in that state are Senator J. P. Chinn and Representative Anderson, proprietor of the Tea's Over Stud.

The bill introduced in the New York legislature by Assemblyman Hart, of Oneida county, to annually set aside $250,000 for the support of the county fairs, is said by its opponents to be unconstitutional, in that one legislature cannot legislate for a succeeding one.

It is the consensus of opinion among Oakland horsemen that Goldblatt would have won the Oaks with Keep Moving if the filly had been shipped to California a week earlier than she was put in hard training at Santa Anita or Tanforan for a week before the race.

When I returned to town that night I sent him a telegram that all the money he wanted was await ing him in the bank. Next day we bought out a laundry in Forty-second Street. When we bought it the business amounted to $300 a week. Now it runs to $1,500 a week and there is twenty per cent. profit in it. I am an advocate for freedom of action and advocate betting on races, though I need never bet another dollar myself."

About eighteen years ago there was a well-known selling plater called Pilot on the turf. was a dealer in butter, eggs, cheese, etc. He had two sons, both of whom had inherited equally strong course of time the father died. The boys had got down to their last dollar. Vowing never to wager again on a race, they began to retrieve their lost business. They have a first-class place of business down in the produce region of New York and are happy. They can beat the races now that it is not vitally necessary and won $2,100 when Go Between won the Suburban in 1907. They won the same amount on Cohort last spring and declare that they know the way to beat the races, if they desire to do so. But they will stick to their regular business and will only occasionally go to the Another youth once a clerk for Frank Eckert
